

ALUCAR
Part of the Extendo Group

Alucar Oy

Alucar is a bodybuilder specialized to developing, selling and producing of timber superstructures and bunks. Alucar is able to offer larges variety of products for timber superstructures. High quality products are manufactured from aluminium and high strength steel in order to maximize timber trucks payload.

- Alucar founded in 1984
- Part of the Extendo-group
- Market leader in Finland
- Turnover 2009 3,8 milj. € (13,9)
- 30 emplyees
- Export to 20 different countries
- ISO 9001 & 14001

Extendo-group

Via their subsidiary companies ExTe, Alucar, Evans, Midwaggon, Autonordic and EEAP; Extendo markets and sells world-leading products for the safe securing of cargo for transport by road and rail.

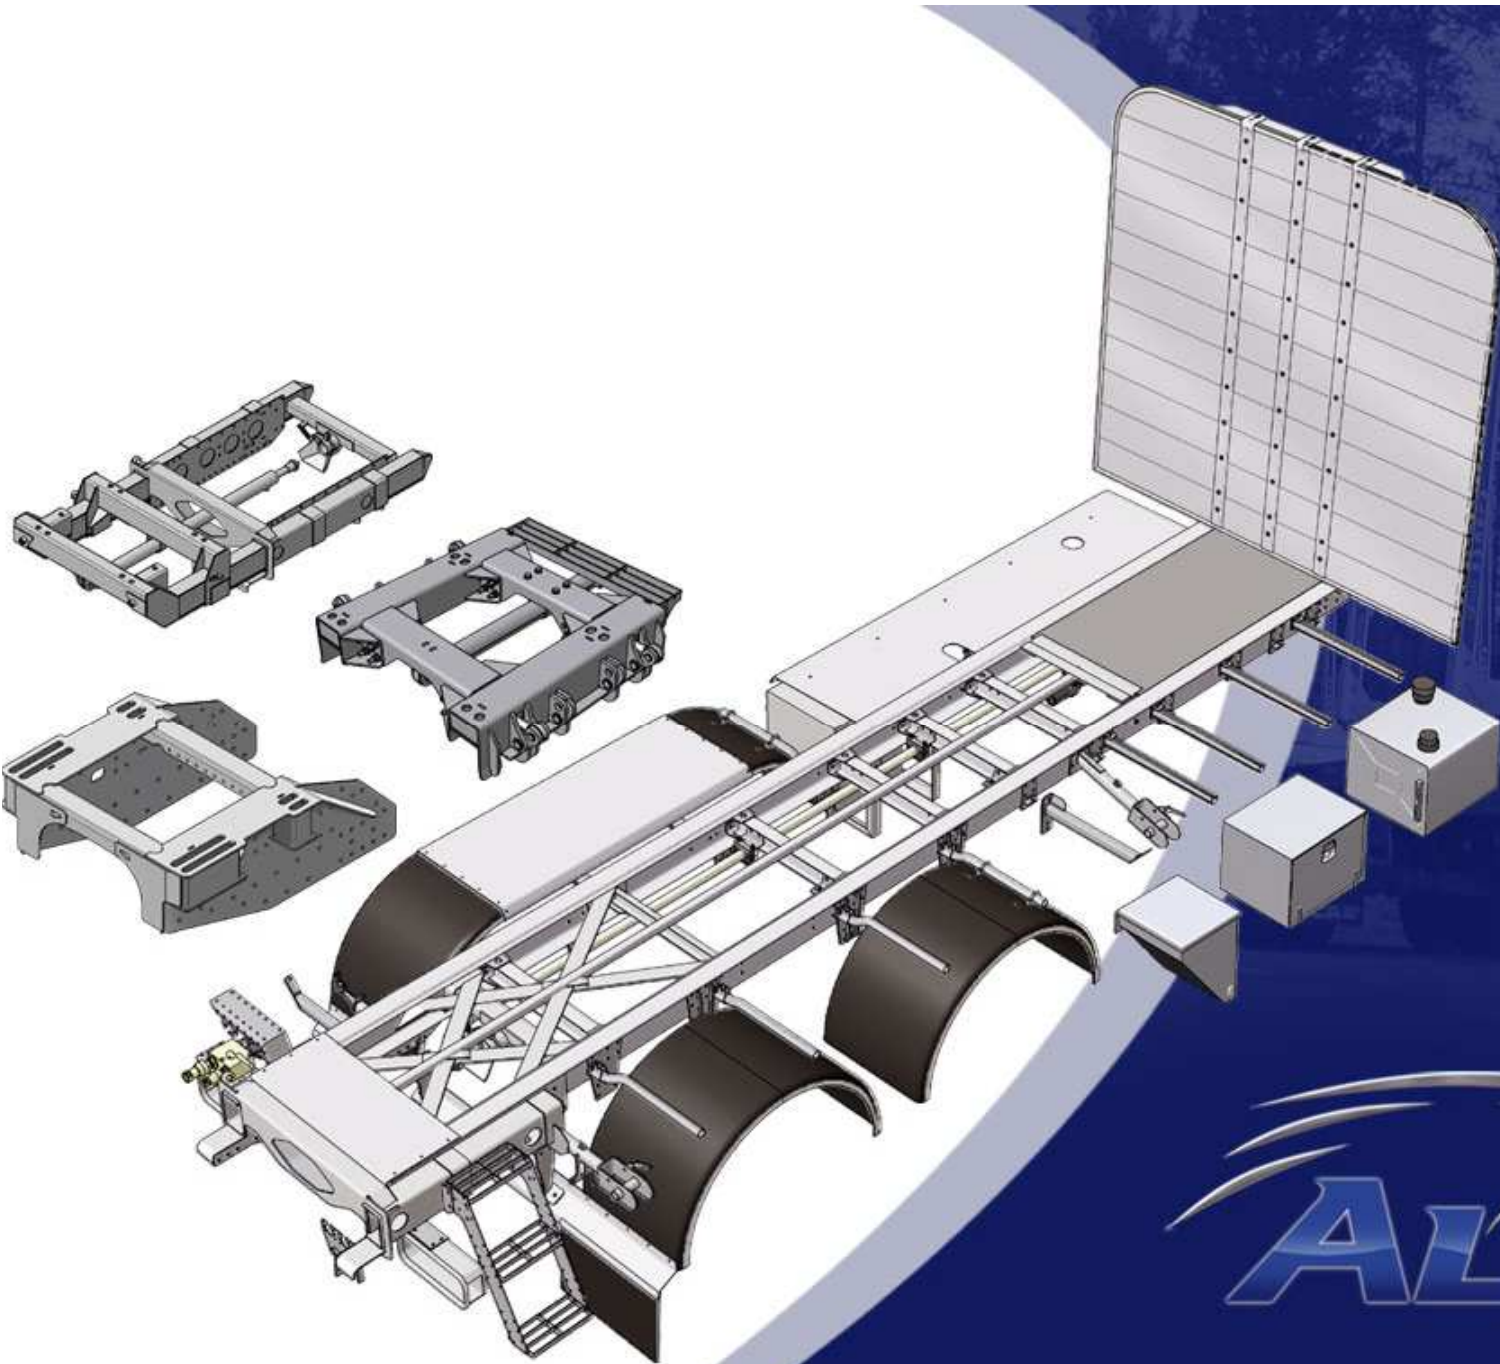

Extendo's business concept is to operate on a global market offering well-known trademarks which contribute to superior traffic safety and exceptional transport economy for haulage contractors.

Alucar timber superstructures

- Developed product during 25 years experience
- For cut to length timbertransport
- Available for all truckbrands and models
- Thousands of units in use in demanding condition worldwide. Example Scandinavia, Baltic countries, Russia, Europe, Canada, Chile, Japan
- Products specified for market needs
  - Different timber, law's, road conditions, weight
- Superstructure based on sub assembling of finished components
  - Enables bigger building up capacity and ensures short lead in time during mounting and stable quality
- Reparation need is very low => The utilization ratio increases
- Joints without welding => easy reparation
- Low product weight => increased payload

- Subframe kit
- Headboards
- Timberbunks
- Hydraulics
- Towing equipment
- Toolboxes
- Sand spreaders
- Crane brackets
- Load tighteners
- Load divider for rear axles

ALUCAR
Part of the Extendo Group

